campZero

Location

CampZero is a modern refuge in the Italian alps. Located in Champoluc (Valle d'Aosta), just 2 hours north of Malpensa airport, the hotel is surrounded by unspoiled nature, and is a popular hiking, mountain bike, and winter sports destination.

Hotel

Nature provides the stunning backdrop to CampZero's unique design.

Besides an indoor climbing wall and extensive wellness area, the hotel features a garage with 39 parking spots, space for helicopter landing as well as Tesla, and electric charging stations.

Dining

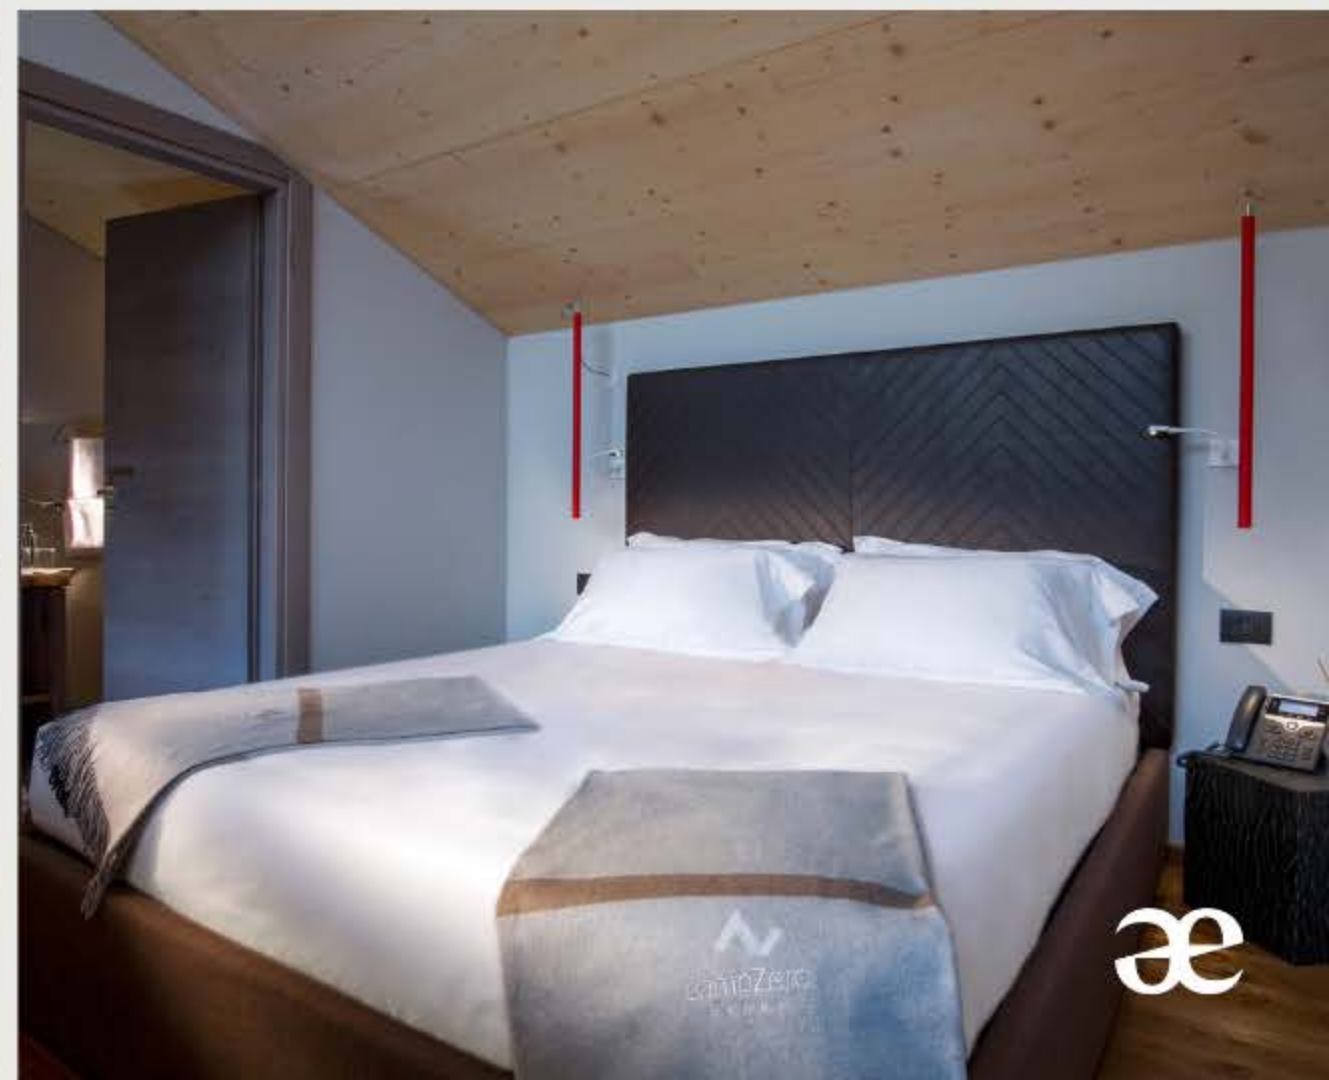

There is no better way to get to know a country than through its cuisine. At Summit, we reinterpret dishes that are rooted in the local tradition with a modern touch.

1568 is a fun and cozy fondue bar & champagnerie. Our secret: cozy interiors, locally sourced ingredients, and fresh Alpine air.

Suites

Escape ordinary life to immerse yourself in nature. CampZero features 30 suites, blending nature and modernist architecture that both feel serene and comfortable.

Wellbeing

Our wellness offerings are for mind, body and soul. Sit back and relax in our wooden hot tub or wood-fired sauna with a magnificent view of the mountains.

The floor-to-ceiling windows in our 25-meter indoor pool were built to blend seamlessly with the surrounding Alpine scenery.

Experiences

Winter or summer, CampZero is the perfect starting point to explore the great outdoors:

from (heli) skiing, or ice climbing to mountain biking or hiking - CampZero is for adrenaline junkies and mindful explorers alike.
